

I want to tell you how much this program has relieved stress in our family at dinner time. I feel that our privacy has finally been respected and that we have some choice as to who calls our home. There are systems in place for allowing for marketing when a client is allowed to give their permission to be contacted. That should be enough. Thank you for your attention to this matter.